

What Do We Really Need?

People who live in poverty do not have the most important things to live a happy, healthy life.

Here are two children who live in poverty. There are some objects around them. Colour in the three most important things which these children need.

Explain why you have coloured in those pictures:

1. _____
2. _____
3. _____